Lebanon Valley College

HISTORY

THE quiet growth of Lebanon Valley College, now in its eighty-fourth year, has behind it an instructive and stimulating history. It is the history, not of a few brilliant men, but of a people and an ideal. The people were the members of the eastern conferences of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ; the ideal, that of a co-educational institution of learning in which the highest scholarship should be fostered in a Christian atmosphere, and in which religion should subsist without sectarianism. To give form to that ideal, Lebanon Valley College was founded at Annville, Pa., in 1866.

To an outside observer, the history of the College from its opening by President Thomas Rees Vickroy on May 7, 1866, in a building donated by the old Annville Academy and with a student body of forty-nine, might seem to consist merely in increases in the number of students, corresponding increases in the faculty, the purchase of new grounds, and the erection of new buildings. But the inner history was marked by a long and bitter struggle against what often seemed insuperable obstacles, a struggle carried on by heroic men and women on the faculty, among the students, and in the conferences.

There was, to begin with, the old controversy over the wisdom of providing higher education for the Church's young people. In the first year of the College's life a fierce attack upon the educational policy of which it was the fruit came near to putting an end to it at once. But the conference stood loyally by the institution it had created and fought the matter through, though it meant in the end the dropping of valued members from the Church.

Some twenty years later another crisis developed over the question of relocating the College. The debate, which lasted for some years, so seriously divided the friends of the College that in the uncertainty all progress came to a stop. In the emergency Dr. E. Benjamin Bierman was called to the presidency, which he assumed in 1890. On the wave of enthusiasm which he was able to set in motion, the policy of permanency and enlargement was accepted. Buildings were renovated, the student body increased, and when that year the College received the Mary A. Dodge Scholarship Fund of ten thousand dollars—by far the largest single amount that had ever come to the institution—Lebanon Valley College was enabled to close its first quarter century with a complete renewal of the confidence in which it had been founded.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

In 1897, under the presidency of Dr. Roop and with the assistance of old friends and new patrons, the College entered on a fresh period of expansion which saw the erection of the greater part of the present plant. Engle Music Hall, the Carnegie Library, and North Hall were first built. The destruction by fire of the old Administration Building tested the loyalty of college supporters but did not interfere with the program of expansion. The friends of the College rallied to build a new and larger Administration Building, a residence for the men, and a heating plant. Dr. Roop also provided proper quarters and modern equipment for the science departments. His vision and initiative laid the foundation for the success that has since come to the College.

The inauguration of the late President George Daniel Gossard marks the beginning of the greatest era of prosperity. During his term of office the student body trebled in numbers, the faculty increased not only in numbers but also in attainments, and the elimination of all phases of secondary education raised the institution to true college status. During this same period two great endowment campaigns were completed. Through the splendid support of the conferences, the alumni, and other friends, the College was made economically sound and her permanency placed beyond question.

As Lebanon Valley College moves forward under the energetic guidance of her president, Dr. Clyde A. Lynch, she looks back with a feeling of reverence over her past. She sees there the small but proud history of a democratic institution, established by a pious people in the faith that "The truth shall make you free," and carried through dark days by the unswerving devotion and self-sacrifice of a faculty and a constituency poor in the world's goods but rich in faith in the ideals for which the College was founded. Lebanon Valley College is proud of its beginnings; and now, with established policies and a vigorous administration, now strengthened as it is in its economic sinews and assured of still stronger institutional support through the merger, in 1946, of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ and the Evangelical Church, it looks forward in the spirit of its founders to taking rank among the leading educational institutions of the state.

A STATEMENT OF AIMS

The motto of Lebanon Valley College, Libertas Per Veritatem, reveals the educational policy of its founders, which remains essentially unchanged. While, in conformity with recent trends toward specialization, certain courses of an immediate and practical value have been added to the curriculum, the institution remains devoted to the purposes of liberal Christian education. It seeks to unite, first of all, Christian ideals and cultural ideals, developing Christian character familiar with the great books and the "chief rival attitudes towards life" of all times, familiar with the principles that underlie all human relationships; persons able to think for themselves on the problems around them.

CATALOGUE

In harmony with the Christian way of life, student organizations provide centres of religious influence. The faculty cooperates in fostering Christian ideals of conduct. The whole college meets weekly in an hour's service of devotion. All students are encouraged to be faithful to the church of their choice. Through such means, and with the help of non-sectarian courses in Religion and Philosophy, students are assisted in formulating for themselves a satisfying philosophy of life and in linking themselves with the spiritual forces necessary to their personal development and service to humanity.

The College provides opportunities for certain types of professional education without prejudicing its function as a liberal arts college. Students are prepared here for careers in commerce, teaching, and music, into which fields they may enter immediately on graduation. Fully accredited pre-professional courses are offered in medicine, law, and the ministry. Such courses, however, are not pursued in isolation, but are taken in connection with studies in the liberal arts.

The College is in harmony with the American way of life. Appropriate courses prepare students for citizenship in our democracy; various student activities provide training in cooperation and leadership; and the responsibilities of campus government are shared by faculty and students alike.

ACADEMIC STANDING

Lebanon Valley College is fully accredited by the Department of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania and by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. It is a member of the Association of American Colleges and of the American Council on Education, and is on the approved list of the Regents of the University of the State of New York.

Lebanon Valley College is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music. The Conservatory of Music is fully accredited by the Department of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania.

LOCATION

The College is situated in Annville, twenty-one miles east of Harrisburg, in the heart of Lebanon Valley, midway between two ranges of the Allegheny system, the Blue Mountains and the South Mountains. It is on the Benjamin Franklin Highway and the Philadelphia-Reading Railroad, and is quickly reached by train or bus from Harrisburg, Reading, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and New York.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT

The campus, of twelve acres, occupies a high point in the centre of Annville. Around it are grouped seventeen college buildings, including the Administration Building, the Carnegie Library, the Engle Conservatory of Music, Washington Hall, the Men's Dormitory, and four dormitories for women: North Hall, South Hall, West Hall, and Sheridan Hall. A new Physical Education Building, now being constructed on the northwest portion of the campus, will be ready for use in the fall of 1950.

The Administration Building contains, in addition to the administrative offices: college lecture rooms, science laboratories, biology and chemistry museums.

Accommodations for study are provided on the lower floor of the library. These rooms are under the supervision of a librarian. The Y. M. C. A. lounge is also available to members as study quarters.

Extramural and intramural sports are encouraged, the College providing equipment where needed. The following special provisions have been made for sports: two athletic fields, one of five and the other of sixteen acres, a fine new physical education building, a field for girls' hockey, together with full equipment.

A well-equipped and comfortable Infirmary has been provided, with two graduate nurses in residence.

THE COLLEGE LIBRARY

The present library equipment is being expanded rapidly to meet the growing needs of the College.

The library already contains a good collection of the foundation books needed by the various college departments. It is excellently equipped with works of general reference, such as encyclopedias, dictionaries, atlases, indexes, and year books. The periodicals room is provided with a large and growing list of technical journals and magazines of general interest.

Incoming students are instructed in the use of catalogues and reference books, and in the best methods of working in the library. Books, unless specially reserved for reference work, may be taken out by students. Inter-library loan courtesies enable the librarian to provide student or faculty member with books not found on the college shelves.

The library is open during these hours:

Monday to Friday.... 8 A.M. to 5 P.M.; 7 P.M. to 9:30 P.M.

Saturday 9 A.M. to 12 NOON; 1 P.M. to 3 P.M.

The Hiram Herr Shenk Collection, which includes the well known Heilman Library, provides material for the study of the history of printing, the history of religious denominations, the history and customs of the Pennsylvania Germans, and other items of local interest. It is especially rich in early Pennsylvania imprints, including many of the rare Saur Bibles and a large collection of Ephrata imprints. There are also sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth-century foreign imprints.

CATALOGUE

The C. B. Montgomery Memorial includes many transcripts and manuscripts dealing principally with the history of the iron industry in this region, early Pennsylvania German settlement, and the Indians of Colonial Pennsylvania. This collection also contains some fine old French prints and the famous American edition of the Boydell Shakespeare prints.

These collections are housed in special rooms. They are open on Tuesday and Wednesday from 2 P.M. to 4 P.M.

Student Activities

OBJECTIVES

Lebanon Valley College is fully aware of the educational values to be found in extra-curricular activities. Because of this appreciation twenty-eight organizations have been established to carry on a well-rounded program of activities.

Through these varied activities the students on the campus learn to live together in a friendly and democratic manner. Here friendships for life are formed that neither time nor space can destroy. Out of this web of activity the College desires that its students develop standards of behavior which are consistent with our Christian and democratic way of life.

THE RELIGIOUS LIFE

Lebanon Valley was founded as a Christian college and it is still dedicated to that objective. All students are invited and urged to participate in some phase of religious activity.

Chapel

Chapel services are held twice a week, on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings at 11:00 a.m., in the College Church. These two services are identical and students are required to attend one of them. Faculty, students, local clergymen from the various denominations as well as other outside speakers carry on this worship service.

Sunday Services

Although the College does not have a morning church service on campus it does urge all students to attend the church of their choice. The College Church, located on the corner of the campus, as well as the other churches of the community extend a warm welcome to all college students who wish to worship with them. A Sunday School class especially for college students is conducted in the College church each Sunday during the school year.

Christian Associations

The Young Men's and the Young Women's Christian Associations are the most active religious organizations on campus. As a part of their program they conduct weekly devotional services, campus-wide Bible studies, special seasonal services as well as intercollegiate exchange religious programs. In addition to numerous other activities the "Y's" sponsor a number of social events throughout the year and arrange for the Big Sister-Little Sister and the Big Brother-Little Brother program for incoming freshmen.

CATALOGUE

By virtue of enrolling in the College a student becomes a member of one of these groups. However, all students are urged to become active members by participating in the various activities of the Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A.

Religious Emphasis Week

This annual week has been firmly established as one of the highlights of our school year. Outstanding speakers of the country are invited to share their experiences with the student body through classroom lectures, seminars, convocations, and personal interviews.

Christian Vocation Week

This week is becoming more and more important in the list of religious activities. During this week special emphasis is given to the establishment of the Christian way of life as the basis for all vocations, professions, etc.

Life Work Recruits

Students who make up this group have definitely decided to devote full-time service to the Christian church. They hold regularly scheduled meetings, conduct social action programs at the various hospitals and county homes as well as provide some service to the community.

FACULTY-STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The ultimate responsibility for the things that happen on the College campus rests upon the faculty. However, the faculty has delegated considerable powers to the student governing bodies so that to a large extent students govern themselves. The College encourages student initiative and self-government as a part of the democratic training students should receive in college.

Student-Faculty Council

The over-all coordination of the complex student affairs is under the direction of the Student-Faculty Council. The Council is composed of representatives from each of the recognized organizations on campus plus three faculty members. The purpose of this organization, in addition to coordinating student activities, is to consider all things pertaining to student welfare, to work toward the improvement of the social life of the campus, to serve as the mediator for students and faculty and to suggest and initiate programs for the over-all improvement of the College.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Governing Bodies

Four student governing bodies are functioning on the Lebanon Valley College campus. Each student is a member of one of these groups. The Senate exists for dormitory men, the Congress for day student men, the Council for day student women and the Executive Board for dormitory women. These four governing bodies, with the approval of the faculty, make and administer the rules which set the standard of living for the campus.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Societies

Wholesome social life on the campus is promoted by all the organizations. However, there are four Societies whose sole purpose is to enrich the social program. These four, Philokosmian and Kalozetean Societies for the men, Clionian and Delphian Societies for the women, conduct a rushing season, hold formal dinners, have a share in campus dramatics, and assist in the over-all college social program wherever they are able.

Dramatics

Those interested in dramatics, and especially prospective teachers who wish to prepare themselves to coach high school plays, will find experience in the anniversary plays presented by the literary societies and the Wig and Buckle Club. "Cub" membership in the Wig and Buckle is open to all students who desire experience in any branch of dramatics—acting, directing, stage mechanics, etc. Regular membership is limited to those who, on taking part in a college production, show real proficiency.

Journalism

A group of students possessing ability in management and writing is selected annually by the Faculty to bring out a weekly periodical, La Vie Collégienne, devoted to college and student interests. La Vie affords training of a highly specialized kind to those interested in reporting and editorial work. Other opportunities for training in authorship are afforded by The Quittapahilla, the annual year-book published by the Junior Class; and by the Green Blotter Club, whose membership consists of a selected group of writers, of whom four are chosen each year from among the first year students.

Athletics

Lebanon Valley College participates in five intercollegiate sports for men (football, basketball, baseball, track, tennis) and two for women (basketball and hockey). This intercollegiate sports program is under the direction of the Director of Athletics for Men and the Director of Athletics for Women.

CATALOGUE

Two athletic organizations are to be found on campus: the "L" Club for the men who win Varsity letters, and the Women's Athletic Association for the women athletes.

Departmental Clubs

Many departmental clubs have been formed on the campus by groups of students interested in certain fields of investigation. At informal gatherings reports on current topics are presented and discussed, and visiting lecturers are entertained. The following is a list of such clubs: The Chemistry Club, French Club, German Club, Green Blotter Club, Life Work Recruits, Political Science Club, Psychology Club, Wig and Buckle Club, and Pi Gamma Mu, social science honor society.

For several years a Radio Workshop, under the supervision of the Office of Public Relations, has been active on campus. This Club studies radio techniques and presents regularly scheduled programs over local broadcasting stations.

Music

Those who play musical instruments or who sing are eligible for membership in the musical organizations maintained on the campus, such as the L. V. C. Band, Symphony Orchestra, College Orchestra, Glee Club, and College Chorus. For detailed announcement concerning these organizations turn to page 106 of this catalogue.

Phi Alpha Epsilon

This honorary scholarship society gives recognition to those who have achieved a high scholarship record during their college course. Those who have attained an average of 88 per cent during the first three and a half years of their college course and are of good moral character are eligible for membership.

Pi Gamma Mu Scholarship Award

Authorized by the National Social Science Honor Society Pi Gamma Mu, Incorporated, and established at Lebanon Valley College in 1948 by the Pennsylvania Nu Chapter of the Society for the promotion of scholarship in the Social Sciences.

As an additional incentive for effort toward this end, this annual award, in the form of a nationally uniform and attractive medal, is granted upon graduation to a Senior, selected by the Chapter's Executive Committee, for outstanding improvement in scholarship in Economics, Government, History or Sociology, and high proficiency or other distinction attained in pursuit of same during his or her years at the College.

Awarded in 1949 to Marion Eleanor Schwalm.

Admission

Persons desiring to enter Lebanon Valley College should make application on official forms which may be obtained from the Office of Admissions. The application should be accompanied by a transcript of the high school record on the form provided for that purpose.

Students coming from other institutions must present for approval certificates of honorable dismissal, and a transcript of their scholastic record.

All new students are required to present a physician's certificate showing that they have been successfully vaccinated within a period of seven years before their entrance to the College.

Graduates of standard high schools (approved by the Pennsylvania State Department of Education, by the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of the Middle Atlantic States and Maryland, or by the state university of the state in which the school is located) will be considered for admission on presentation of certificates, signed by the proper authorities, showing the completion of a senior high school course or its equivalent.

Such certificates must show that the candidate has adequate preparation to enable him to proceed successfully with the subject matter which is basic in the course to which admission is sought.

Units acceptable for admission are from the following groups of subjects: English, Foreign Languages (ancient or modern), Mathematics (Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry), Sciences (Biology, Chemistry, General Science, Physics), Social Studies (Civics, History, etc). Other subjects may be accepted at the discretion of the Committee on Admissions.

DISTRIBUTION OF SUBJECTS

A proper preparation for college includes credit in each of the above groups. To promote such distribution the college requires the candidate for admission from a senior high school to present the following:

Minimum Requirements

English	4 units
Foreign Language (in one language)	2 "
Mathematics	2 "
Science (Laboratory)	1 unit
Social Studies	1 "
Electives	6 units
Total required	16 units

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

RECOMMENDATIONS

In addition to the above minimum requirements, candidates should be careful to include subjects useful or necessary as preparation for the subjects to be pursued in college. Attention is especially directed to the following recommendations.

Foreign Languages

If languages and literature are to be emphasized in college, 3 to 6 units of foreign languages, including Latin, are recommended as a basis for more satisfactory work in these fields.

Mathematics

Candidates planning to go on with science should include at least $1\frac{1}{2}$ units of Algebra and a unit of Plane Geometry. Those who plan to proceed with the mathematical sciences (Mathematics and Physics) should include 2 units of Algebra, a unit of Plane Geometry, and, wherever possible, Solid Geometry.

Science

Candidates who expect to emphasize the sciences should present 1 unit in each of Biology, Chemistry, and Physics.

Conservatory Entrance Requirements

Applicants must (1) be graduates of an approved high school, (2) present four units of English, (3) possess a reasonable amount of musical intelligence and accomplishment.

They should have:

1. An acceptable singing voice and a fairly quick sense of tone and rhythm;
2. Ability to sing at sight hymn and folk tunes with a fair degree of accuracy and facility;
3. Ability to play the piano or some orchestral instrument representing two years of study.

These qualifications shall be judged by means of an audition held on the campus before members of the Conservatory faculty.

REGISTRATION

Registration is the process of class assignment and is completed over the signatures of the adviser and the Registrar. No student will be admitted to any class without the proper registration card, which is sent direct to the department of instruction from the Registrar's office.

The registration days for the collegiate year 1950-1951 are as follows: First semester, Sept. 11-13; second semester, Jan. 8-12.

CATALOGUE

Pre-registration To expedite the opening of the school year in September, all students of 1949-1950 will be registered during the month of May for the ensuing year's work. Changes in registration will be made in September without charge.

Late Registration Students registering later than the days specified will be charged a fee of one dollar. Students desiring to register later than one week after the opening of the semester will be admitted only by special permission.

Change of Registration When change of registration is advisable or necessary such changes must be made in the same way as the original registration, namely, over the signature of the adviser. Such changes will not be permitted after the close of the second week of the session.

Classification Classification will be made on the following credit basis: Freshman standing, 16 units; Sophomore standing, 30 semester hours and 30 quality points; Junior standing, 65 semester hours and 65 quality points; Senior standing, 95 semester hours and 95 quality points.

Advanced Standing Credits for work done in other institutions, for which advanced standing is desired, must be submitted to the Dean and a copy filed with the Registrar.

FRESHMAN WEEK

A few days are set apart at the beginning of the college year for the purpose of helping new students to become familiar with their academic surroundings. There are lectures, placement tests, hikes, and informal meetings with members of the faculty in their homes. New students are made acquainted with the College traditions, and are advised concerning methods of study and the use of the library.

All incoming students are required to take a thorough physical examination during the registration period.

ADVISERS

The student will find little opportunity for specialization in the first year at college, but before registering for the second year he may choose a department in which to pursue work of special concentration. This department shall be known as his major. The head of the department in which a student has elected to major becomes the adviser for that student. The adviser's approval is necessary before a student may register for or enter upon any course of study, or discontinue any work. He is the medium of communication between the Faculty and the students majoring in his department, and stands to his students in the relation of a friendly counselor.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Credits

Grading System Class standing will be determined three times a year for faculty consideration: nine weeks after the opening of college, and at the end of each semester.

The standing in each course is indicated generally by classification in seven groups, as follows:

A (90-100%) signifies that the record of the student is distinguished.

B (80-89%) signifies that the record of the student is very good.

C (70-79%) signifies that the record is good.

D (60-69%) signifies the lowest sustained record.

F (Failed) signifies that the student must drop or repeat the subject and cannot be admitted to subjects dependent thereon. If a student fails twice in a course, he may not register for it a third time.

I (Incomplete) signifies that work is incomplete, but otherwise satisfactory.

Withdrawal from Courses W indicates withdrawal from a course any time within the first six weeks of a semester. If, however, a student withdraws after six weeks, the symbol WP will be entered if his work is satisfactory, and WF if his work is unsatisfactory. The mark WP will be considered as without prejudice to the student's standing, but the mark WF will be counted as a grade of 50 in averaging grades.

LIMIT OF HOURS

Every resident student must take at least fifteen hours of work as catalogued. Seventeen hours of academic work is the maximum permitted, except to students whose previous record shows a majority of A's. Such students are permitted a maximum of eighteen hours.

Administrative Regulations

The rules of the College are as few and simple as the proper regulation of a community of young men and women will permit. The dormitories are under the immediate control of the Dean of Men and Dean of Women and the student government bodies. Possession of alcoholic beverages on the campus will be construed as a major offense. It is likewise a major offense for any student to appear on the campus while under the influence of liquor.

Class Absences Each professor shall determine for each class and for each student when a student's repeated or continued absence from class has jeopardized his class standing with respect to that subject. The professor will then notify the dean, who will counsel with the student regarding his work. If after this the student continues to be absent, the professor may, at his discretion, drop the student's name from his class roll, and the student may reinstate himself only by taking an examination or by giving other evidence, as the professor sees fit to demand, of his ability to continue the course. The professor is free to say that a student who maintains an A average in that course may have unlimited cuts, and he may also say that a student who is doing below C work will be allowed no cuts at all.

A fee of three dollars will be charged for each examination for reinstatement.

Chapel Attendance Chapel services are conducted twice a week. These two services are identical and attendance is required at one of them of all full-time students. Three absences are allowed during a semester. For each additional unexcused absence one hour will be added to the required hours for graduation.

Hazing Hazing is strictly prohibited. Any infringement by members of the other classes upon the personal rights of freshmen, or any discrimination against freshmen because of their class standing, is interpreted as hazing.

DEFICIENT STUDENTS

Probation A student who has failed to pass in 60% of the semester hours for which he is registered, or to secure 60% of the quality credits due on said hours, will be placed on probation. If at the close of the next semester such a student has still failed to meet this standard, he may be required to withdraw from college.

Expenses

The rates on the following pages apply to the college year 1950-1951.

MATRICULATION

A Matriculation Fee of five dollars must be paid by all full-time students who are entering the College for the first time or applying for a degree. This fee should accompany the application for admission. If a student's application is not accepted, the fee will be returned.

All students not enrolled in regular College or Conservatory courses will be required to pay a matriculation fee of one dollar, once in each school year.

TUITION AND STUDENT ACTIVITIES FEES

An annual charge of $400 for tuition (entitling the student to seventeen hours per semester in the College and Conservatory) and $30 for a student activities fee, will be made for all students in regular courses.

Ten dollars will be charged for each additional semester hour of work taken in regular classes when the total number of hours for the year exceeds thirty-four. Students who enroll for fewer than twelve hours in regular courses will be charged at the rate of $15 per semester hour.

It is understood that the charge for extra hours above the regularly permitted seventeen per semester shall not be affected by the addition of required hours in Physical Education; in other words, a student may take without extra charge the required Physical Education over and above his seventeen hours per semester of academic work.

The payment of the annual fee entitles the student not only to classroom instruction but to the following privileges as well: the use of the library, gymnasium, and athletic field; admission to athletic games on the home grounds or in Lebanon; subscription to La Vie Collégienne and the College Year Book; membership in the Christian Associations and student government associations; use of the Infirmary by residence students; and use of day-student quarters by day-students.

LABORATORY FEES

To cover the cost of materials used in the laboratories, the following fees are charged:

CATALOGUE

	EACH SEMESTER
Biology 49	$ 4.00
All other Biology courses, each	10.00
Geology 20	10.00
Chemistry 10, 40	10.00

Psychology 42. Mental Tests and Measurements	5.00
Orientation 11. Freshman Orientation	1.00

There will be no refund of laboratory fees.

A deposit of $2 is required of each student in the Biological Laboratory as a guarantee for the return of keys and apparatus. This amount, less any deductions for loss or breakage, is refunded when keys and apparatus are returned.

Breakage Deposit for Chemistry Courses: Chemistry 10, $5; Chemistry, 20, $4; Chemistry 21, $4; Chemistry 22, $8; Chemistry 30, $4; Chemistry 31, $4; Chemistry 40, $4; Chemistry 32, $3; Chemistry 41, $10; Chemistry 42, $10. All breakage in the Chemical Laboratory will be charged against the individual student. Any balance of the above deposits due the student at the completion of his course will be returned or credited to his account, and any deficit beyond his deposit will be charged to his regular college account.

All deposits shall be paid at the Treasurer's office.

BOARDING

The domestic department is in charge of a skilled and competent dietitian. Plain, substantial, and palatable food especially adapted to the needs of the student is provided. The kitchen is furnished with modern equipment, and all food is prepared in the most sanitary manner.

The Boarding rate for the college year 1950-1951 is $300. The College reserves the right to increase this amount at any time during the year in case of unusual change in food prices. These rates do not include Christmas and Easter vacations.

Students who leave college during the term will be required to pay board at the rate of $9.00 per week during their stay in college.

All students who do not room and board at their homes are required to room and board in the College unless special permission is obtained to do otherwise. Students refusing to comply with this regulation forfeit their privileges as students in the College.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

ROOM RENT

Room rent varies from $60 to $115 except when double rooms are assigned to only one student, in which case the occupant will pay the regular rent for two. Rooms are reserved only for those who make an advance payment of $25. This amount will be credited to the semester account, and will not be returned except in case of emergency. There is no refund on room rentals.

Occupants of a room are held responsible for all breakage and loss of furniture or any loss whatever for which the students are responsible. A breakage fee of $10 is required of each student rooming in the Men's Dormitory. All or part of this may be returned at the end of the year. A dormitory service fee of $6 is charged men in the Dormitory. A breakage fee of $5 is required for each student in the Women's Dormitories. After deducting the cost of repairing any damage to the room, estimated at the end of the college year, the balance will be returned or applied on account.

Each room in the Men's Dormitory is furnished with a chiffonier and book case, and for each occupant a cot, a mattress, one chair, and a study table. Students must provide their own bedding, rugs, towels, soap, and all other furnishings.

The Men's Dormitory is under the supervision of a member of the staff who occupies a suite of rooms in the building.

A reception room on the first floor is provided for the accommodation of parents and other visitors.

Each room in the Women's Dormitories is furnished with a rug, bed, mattress, chair, dresser, book-case, and study table. All other desired furnishings must be supplied by the student.

All students to whom rooms are assigned are strictly forbidden to sublet their rooms to day students or to others for a money or any other consideration.

The College reserves the right to close all the dormitories during vacations.

A day-students' room for women is provided in South Hall, for men in Washington Hall, and for music students in the Conservatory.

Service Charge, Men's Dormitory	$6.00
Matriculation Fee—payable only once, i.e., when the student first enters the College	5.00

FEE FOR PRACTICE TEACHING

A fee of $20 for each semester is charged to all students in the College and the Conservatory who do practice teaching.

GRADUATION FEE

Sixty days prior to Commencement, candidates for degrees are required to pay the following fees:

Students graduating in the College, $15; students graduating in Music, $15.

In addition, students applying for degrees who have not been previously regularly matriculated in the College, are required to pay an initial registration fee of $5.

PAYMENT OF FEES

An advance payment must be made by each student to provide for registration. Students who reserve rooms in the dormitories are required to make a payment of $25.00 by June 1 to secure the reservation. After this date rooms not so secured may be assigned to other applicants. All other students in order to be certain of admission to the College must make this advance payment of $30.00 by July 1. Registration is not completed and students will not be admitted to class until this payment is made. No refund will be made on this fee.

Bills for regular college expenses, including tuition, laboratory fees, boarding, and room rent, are issued at the beginning of each semester, covering the expenses for the full semester. These bills are due on the day they are issued and must be paid within ten days from the day the semester begins; otherwise, the student will be required to withdraw from college.

Satisfactory settlement of all bills and fees is required before an honorable dismissal may be granted or grades recorded.

Students who are candidates for diplomas or certificates must make full settlement entirely satisfactory to the Finance Committee before diplomas or certificates will be sealed and delivered.

DEFERRED PAYMENTS—THE TUITION PLAN

Since some parents may prefer to pay tuition and other fees in equal monthly installments during the academic year, we are glad to offer this convenience under the Tuition Plan. The cost is 4% greater than when payment is made in cash at the beginning of each semester.

Parents who prefer to pay in installments need merely notify us and we shall send them the necessary forms promptly. Application should be made within the ten days following the opening of the semester.

ABSENCE AND SICKNESS

When students retain their class standing during absence from college because of sickness or for any other reason, no rebate or refund will be allowed on tuition. In case of suspension for any reason there will be no rebate.

In case of sickness which occasions loss of class standing, or in case of withdrawal for any other cause, a reasonable refund will be allowed on tuition, and charges made according to the following schedule:

Tuition Refund Schedule

Period of Student's Actual Attendance in College from Date of Enrollment	% Charge on Tuition
One week or less	20%
Between one and two weeks	20%
Between two and three weeks	40%
Between three and four weeks	60%
Between four and five weeks	80%
Over five weeks	100%
No refunds will be allowed on room rents.

AID TO STUDENTS

Help is extended annually to a limited number of students, but only to those pursuing full courses in the College or Conservatory. This help is given in the form of Scholarships, Waiterships, Janitorships, Tutorships, or Library Assistantships. Such help is given on the explicit condition that the recipient comply with all the rules and regulations of the College and give evidence of real need.

A student forfeits the privilege of a scholarship or other help from the College when his average grade for the semester falls below B-, when in any way he refuses to cooperate with the College, or when he disregards the regulations of the institution.

Students rooming in dormitories and boarding at the college Dining Hall will be given preference when work of various kinds is assigned.

SCHOLARSHIPS, TRUST FUNDS, AND REBATES

The College offers a limited number of tuition scholarships upon recommendation of the Scholarship Committee. It also makes some loans.

Competitive scholarship examinations are conducted at the College each year. All high school seniors in the upper third of their respective classes are eligible to participate. Information may be procured by writing to the Office of Admissions.

CATALOGUE

Students preparing for the ministry in the Evangelical United Brethren Church will, if living at the College, be entitled to $150 reduction in tuition, provided they maintain satisfactory academic standing. Day students, preparing for the ministry, will be entitled to $75 reduction, under the same conditions.

No scholarship or rebate will be granted for a period shorter than a semester.

Ministers' children are entitled to an annual reduction of $75 on full tuition, in either the College or the Conservatory, unless they are day students, in which case they are entitled to a reduction of $37.50. Scholarships do not cover the tuition for extra work taken.

Scholarships are not applied to accounts in Summer School or Extension School.

Requirements for Degree

Lebanon Valley College offers the degrees of Bachelor of Arts (A.B.), Bachelor of Science (B.S.), and Bachelor of Science in Chemistry (B.S. in Chemistry).

Residence Requirement Degrees will be conferred only upon candidates who have spent at least a full year in actual residence.

Hours Candidates for degrees must obtain a minimum of 126 semester hours credit in academic work, and in addition 4 semester hours in Physical Education, making a total of 130 semester hours. It is understood, however, that a student who has a physical disability may be excused (on recommendation from the college physician) from the requirement in Physical Education without being obliged to substitute other work in order to bring his total of semester hours from 126 to 130.

Quality Points Candidates for degrees must also obtain a minimum of 130 quality points, computed as follows: for a grade of A, 3 points for each credit hour; for a grade of B, 2 points; for a grade of C, 1 point. No quality points will be given for a grade of D. A grade of F shall entail a loss of 1 quality point per credit hour.

Major and Minor As part of this total requirement, every candidate must present at least 24 semester hours in one department (to be known as his Major), and at least 18 semester hours in another department (to be known as his Minor). Both Major and Minor may be selected before registration for the sophomore year, the Minor to be suitably related to the Major, and chosen with the advice and approval of the Head of the Major Department.

The A.B. degree will be awarded to those fulfilling the requirements for a Major in the following departments: English, French, German, Greek, History, Latin, Mathematics (Arts option), Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, Sociology, Spanish.

The B.S. degree will be awarded to those fulfilling the requirements for a Major in the following departments: Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics (Science option), Physics, Economics and Business, Education, Music Education.

The B.S. in Chemistry degree will be awarded to those fulfilling the requirements indicated on page 46.

CATALOGUE

Those majoring in Education must take two Minors of not less than 18 semester hours each.

For the special requirements for those majoring in Economics and Business, see p. 47; for those majoring in Music Education, see p. 99; for those majoring in Chemistry, see p. 46; for those interested in pre-professional courses, see p. 46, and following.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Certain courses embodying the fundamentals of a liberal education, are required of all students. These courses, which vary slightly according to the degree sought, are as follows:

English 10a-10b, ¹ 20a-20b	12 hours
Foreign Language ²
History ³	6 hours
Hygiene	1 hour
Mathematics ⁴
Orientation	1 hour
Philosophy 30	2 hours
Physical Education	4 hours
Political Science 32	2 hours
Psychology 20	3 hours
Religion 10 or 11	4 hours
Religion 32 or Philosophy 31	2 hours
Science ⁵
Social Studies	6 hours
Economics 20 or Philosophy 20a and 20b Political Science 10a-10b or Sociology 20 and 21

¹ Students who demonstrate proficiency in English in tests given during Freshman Week may be exempt from this requirement upon approval by the Freshman staff of the English Department. In such cases the general requirement in English may be met by taking English 20a-20b (or a 6-hour equivalent approved by the English Department) and English 23, Advanced Composition.

² For the A.B. degree 12 hours of Foreign Language are required.

For the B.S. degree 6 hours are required above the beginners' course.

Courses may be selected from French, German, Greek, Latin, Russian, or Spanish.

³ This may be made up from the following courses: History 10, 11, 12, 21, 22, 23, 24, 31, 32, 45, 46.

⁴ Math. 13, 14, 33, and 34 are required for the degree of B.S. in Science. Pre-Medical students may substitute an elective for Math. 33 and 34. Students majoring in Economics and Business are required to take Math. 13 or 14 and 19.

⁵ Biology 12 or 18, Chemistry 10, and Physics 20 and 21 are required of candidates for the B.S. degree with a major in Science. Others may elect one of the three.

Arrangement of Courses by Years

All the courses included in the foregoing list will ordinarily be taken in fixed years of the college course. A maximum load of 17 hours a week, exclusive of physical education, is permitted for the regular tuition. A load of 16 or 17 hours, including physical education, should be taken each semester to meet the total of 130 hours required for graduation. The normal distribution of requirements for students seeking the A.B. or B.S. Degree follows:

REGULAR PRE-MEDICAL COURSE

ADVISERS: DR. DERICKSON AND DR. BENDER

The following courses of study are outlined for those desiring to qualify for admission to medical schools.

The work offered for a two-year course includes the subjects specified by the Bureau of Professional Education of the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction as the minimum requirement for admission to any medical school.

The four-year course includes all of the subjects required for admission to the medical schools which require a collegiate degree for admission and fulfills the requirements of the College for the Bachelor of Science degree. The student ranks as a Pre-Medical Major.

The student should maintain a standard of not less than "B" in required courses in order to obtain the recommendation of the college for admission to a medical school.

In addition to the courses outlined the student is advised to read the following:

Locy, Biology and its Makers; Stieglitz, Chemistry in Medicine; Mendel, Nutrition: The Chemistry of Life; Garrison, History of Medicine.

Current Biological Literature including Journals of Wistar Institute of Anatomy and Biology.

Bio-Chemistry by such authors as Bodansky, Hawk, Gortner.

TEACHING

ADVISER: PROFESSOR MCKLVEEN

Five-year Plan for Teacher Education

In anticipation of the time when a fifth year of college work may be required of secondary teachers, Lebanon Valley College has so arranged sequences of courses that its students may, upon graduation, continue graduate courses in the Schools of Education of the University of Pennsylvania and Temple University without loss of time or credits in securing the master's degree. Lebanon Valley College will continue to offer work leading to the granting of the provisional certificate; and, for teachers who do not desire a master's degree, such work as is at present required for the college permanent certificate.

Certification Requirements

Certification requirements in the various states make it imperative that prospective teachers begin planning their work during the freshman year in college. The planning should take into consideration two factors:

- A. Requirements in professional courses.
- B. Requirements in academic subject matter.

Requirements in Professional Courses

The following professional courses are designed to meet the Pennsylvania requirements for certification:

A. Education 20. Three hours. This course, which is prerequisite to other courses in Education, should be taken the first semester in the sophomore year.

B. Psychology 23. Three hours. Prerequisite: Psychology 20. It is suggested that Psychology 20 be taken the first semester of the sophomore year and Psychology 23 the second semester.

C. Education 32. Three hours. To be taken the first semester, junior year.

D. Education 47. Three hours. To be taken the second semester, junior year.

E. Education 40a-40b. Six hours. Prerequisites: Education 20, 32, 47, Psychology 23.

F. History 40a-40b. Three hours.

In addition to the foregoing professional requirements, the State requires at least three hours in a basic course on American History with emphasis on Pennsylvania. This is met by one or two semesters of History 40a-40b.

Students wishing to major in Education or to meet requirements in other states should consult with Professor McKlveen before beginning their professional work.

It should be noted that satisfactory work in English 22 (Public Speaking) is a prerequisite to the course in practice teaching.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Requirements in Academic Subject Matter

A. Students can be certified in the following secondary school subjects: English, French, German, Latin, Spanish, History, Social Science, Mathematics, Physical Science, and Biological Science. At least eighteen hours of credit in the various fields are required for certification to teach in those fields.

B. The following programs are designed to meet Pennsylvania requirements in the respective subject matter fields:

1. English: 10a-10b, 20a-20b, 30a or 30b, 21a.
2. French: 10, 20, six hours advanced work.
3. German: 10, 20, six hours advanced work.
4. Latin: 11, 20, 42, two hours elective.
5. Spanish: 1, 10, 20. Students who present two years of high-school Spanish will waive Spanish 1. In that case six additional hours will be needed to meet certification requirements.
6. Mathematics: 20, 33, 34, four hours elective.
7. History: 11, 40a-40b, six hours of European history, and three hours of American history.
8. Social Science: Economics 20, Political Science 10a-10b, Sociology 20, 21.
9. Social Studies: Teachers certified in Social Studies can teach history and social science. Students will be recommended for certification in this field upon satisfactory completion of History 40a-40b, six hours of European history, Economics 20, Political Science 10a-10b, and Sociology 20 or 21.
10. Physical Sciences: Chemistry 10, Physics 20 and 21, two hours elective in either field.
11. Biological Sciences: Biology 18, 28a-28b, 38a-38b.
12. Science: Teachers certified in Science can teach Physical and Biological Sciences. Students will be recommended for certification in this field upon satisfactory completion of Biology 18, Physics 20 and 21, Chemistry 10.

The combination fields in Science and Social Studies are concessions to students experiencing difficulties in meeting all requirements for certification in the separate fields covered by these terms. At no time should the student seek certification in either Social Studies or Science unless he is meeting all requirements in one of the divisions included in these fields, i.e., History or Social Science in the case of Social Studies, and Biological or Physical Sciences in the case of Science. Furthermore, Social Studies or Science should be added only as a third field in which certification is being sought.

Requirements for a Major in Education

To those who are preparing for work in Education as a profession, and who desire to make a more complete preparation than the minimum required by the State, a major in Education leading to the B.S. degree is offered. For this, thirty hours in Education including Educational Psychology and Adolescent Psychology are required, and in addition two minors, chosen from related fields, of eighteen semester hours each.

CATALOGUE

Scholastic Record of Prospective Teachers

Students whose college work falls below the median grade of the College are strongly advised not to consider education as a profession. The College reserves the right to refuse such persons admission into education courses.

Placement Bureau

In order to give students the benefit of calls that are received for teachers and to render greater assistance in finding employment, the College provides for a Placement Bureau to keep on file records of students with their credentials for those who desire it. For registration with the bureau a fee of two dollars is charged. The services of the Placement Bureau will be available to graduates for one year after date of graduation by virtue of this fee. If any graduate desires further service an additional fee of two dollars is charged for each year.

Courses of Study

BIOLOGY

PROFESSORS DERICKSON AND LIGHT, DR. CRETZINGER,
MR. ESPENSHADE, AND ASSISTANTS

The work outlined in the following courses in Biology is intended to acquaint students with those fundamental facts necessary for the proper interpretation of the phenomena manifested by the living things with which they are surrounded, and to lay a broad foundation for specialization in universities in professional courses in Biology.

Those completing the courses will be well prepared for the work in medical schools, schools for medical technologists, hospital schools for training of nurses, for graduate work in colleges and universities, for teaching the biological sciences in high schools, and for assistantships in university and experiment station laboratories in the departments of agriculture and the United States Biological Survey.

For outline of complete Pre-Medical Course, see p. 49.

Major: Biology 18 and any additional courses of higher number, including laboratory work, in the department, amounting to twenty-four semester hours.

Minor: Biology 18 and ten semester hours from courses of higher number in the department.

Those preparing to teach Biology should take Biology 18, 28, 38, and as many additional courses as their elective hours will permit.

12. General Biology (Cultural).

Four hours. Throughout the year.

Three hours class work and two hours laboratory work each week.

18. General Biology (Professional).

Four hours. Throughout the year. Laboratory work Tuesday or Friday afternoon.

Three hours class work and four hours laboratory work each week.

Required of freshmen majoring in Biology preparing to enter medical schools or other lines of professional biological work.

21. Bacteriology.

Four hours. First semester. Offered 1951-1952.

Two class periods and four hours laboratory work each week.

This course is designed to acquaint the student with various forms of bacteria and their role in nature. It includes laboratory technique in cultivation, sterilization, isolation of pure cultures, and staining of bacteria.

Required of those preparing for medical technology or nursing.

CATALOGUE

22. Genetics.

Four hours. First semester. Offered 1950-1951.

Two class periods and four hours laboratory work each week.

This course deals with the mechanism and laws of heredity and variation, and their practical applications.

28a-28b. Botany.

Four hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1950-1951.

Three class periods and four hours field and laboratory work each week.

The object of the course is to give the student a general knowledge of the plant kingdom. One or more types of each of the classes of algae, fungus, liverworts, mosses, ferns, and seed plants are studied.

Special attention is given to the phylogeny and ontogeny of the several groups, and constant comparisons are made of those structures indicating relationships. The principles of classification are learned by the identification of about one hundred and fifty species of plants represented in the local fall and spring flora. These studies are conducted in the field so that the plants are seen as dynamic forces adapted to their environment.

31. Vertebrate Embryology.

Four hours. First semester. Offered 1951-1952.

Two class periods and six hours laboratory work each week.

A detailed study of the development of the frog up to 12 m.m. and the chick up to the fifth day with comparisons with other vertebrate embryos.

Recommended to those preparing for medicine, medical technology, or nursing and for those majoring in Biology.

32. Physiology.

Four hours. Second semester. Offered 1951-1952.

Two class periods and four hours laboratory work each week.

A course of instruction in general physiology dealing with the tissues of the body and especially their function in respiration, digestion, circulation, excretion, and reproduction.

Required of those preparing for nursing. Recommended to those preparing for medicine.

38a-38b. Zoology.

Four hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1951-1952.

Three lectures or recitations and four hours each week of laboratory or field work.

The course is intended to acquaint the student with the structure, life history, and behavior of representatives of each phylum of animals. In the study of types, structure, function, and adaptation are given equal emphasis. The principles of phylogeny and ontogeny are considered.

The laboratory and class work is supplemented by field studies including observations of habits, ecological conditions, and the use of keys for identification and classification.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

44. Biological Problems.

Credit hours and time adjusted to the problem assigned.

Laboratory work with conferences.

This course is open to a limited number of students majoring in Biology who have made a distinguished record in their previous courses. It consists in working out problems assigned to them involving a practical application of various methods of technique, originality of method and interpretation, and the development of the spirit of research. A weekly conference and report on the progress of the work will be required, and a detailed report including complete records of the work done must be presented before semester examinations.

45. Vertebrate Histology.

Four hours. Second semester. Offered 1951-1952.

Two class periods and six hours laboratory work each week.

A study of the structure of the tissues of the vertebrate, especially of the mammalian body, and of various methods of technique employed.

Recommended to those preparing for medicine, medical technology, and for those majoring in Biology.

48a-48b. Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy.

Four hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1950-1951.

Six hours laboratory work and two hours of conference and demonstration each week.

The course consists of the dissection and study of amphioxus, the lamprey, the spiny dogfish, the haddock skull, and the cat.

Recommended to those preparing for medicine, medical technology, or nursing and for those majoring in Biology.

49. Materials and Techniques for the Biology Teacher.

Four hours. Two class periods and four hours laboratory work each week.

This course is designed to acquaint students of the sciences with methods of obtaining, preparing, and preserving types of biological materials; the making of charts and models; photography; lantern slide making; the fundamentals of taxidermy; various types of tests and devices used in teaching; sources of equipment; and lists of books and periodicals useful to science students and teachers.

CHEMISTRY

PROFESSOR BENDER AND ASSISTANT PROFESSORS NEIDIG
AND WEICKSEL

The department aims to give to students majoring in chemistry such training in the principles and technique of chemistry as will enable them to find employment in the chemical industry or to pursue to advantage the subject further in graduate schools. Pre-medical students will find the courses outlined below meet the chemistry requirements of the best medical schools.

The department also provides students of liberal arts, who take chemistry as an elective, or in order to complete the science requirements for their degree, some insight into scientific methods and procedures, in the hope that this knowledge will give them a better orientation in the scientific age in which we live.

For outline of complete Pre-Medical Course, see p. 49.

For outline of course leading to the degree of B.S. in Chemistry, see p. 46.

Major: Chemistry 10, 20, 21, 22, and 40.

Minor: Chemistry 10 and any additional twelve hours in analytical or organic chemistry.

Pre-Medical students majoring in chemistry may substitute courses in other departments for Chemistry 40.

10. General Inorganic Chemistry.

Four hours. Throughout the year.

Three hours of class work and three hours of laboratory work per week.

A systematic study of fundamental principles and of the sources, properties, and uses of the important elements and compounds. The lectures are illustrated by displays, demonstration experiments, and motion pictures. In the laboratory the student acquires first-hand acquaintance with numerous representative substances and methods.

20. Qualitative Analysis.

Four hours. First semester.

Three hours of class work and a minimum of six hours of laboratory work each week.

The theory and principles of analytical chemistry are studied. The course includes a study of the methods for systematically separating and identifying all of the common metals and acid radicals. The solution of a number of problems involving solubility product, hydrolysis, equilibria, and oxidation-reduction is required. The laboratory work includes the analysis of about twenty solutions and solids varying in complexity from simple salts to complex insoluble mixtures.

21. Quantitative Analysis.

Four hours. Second semester.

Three hours of class work and a minimum of eight hours of laboratory work each week.

This course with Chemistry 20 is designed to give in one year an adequate foundation in analytical chemistry. The classroom work includes a study of the principles of gravimetric and volumetric analysis including solubility, equilibria, and the principles involved in electrolytic separations.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

The laboratory work includes simple introductory determinations, acidimetry, alkalimetry, mixed alkalis, partial analysis of copper and iron ores and phosphate rock, analysis of coal, limestone, an alloy, steel, a silica determination and an electrolytic determination. Certain substitutions such as protein nitrogen determination may be made by pre-medical students. Becker chainomatic balances are used.

22. Organic Chemistry.

Four hours. Throughout the year.

Three hours of class work and a minimum of five hours of laboratory work each week. The course includes a study of the sources, classification and type reactions of organic materials: foodstuffs and their relation to nutrition, dyes, pharmaceuticals, explosives, plastics, manufacturing processes. Emphasis is placed on the relation between this branch of chemistry and the other sciences, especially biology, and its influence on the progress of civilization. The laboratory work consists of about sixty experiments covering the preparation of a wide range of representative compounds.

30. Advanced Quantitative Analysis.

Four hours. First semester.

Two hours of lectures and discussions and eight hours of laboratory work each week. An extension of Chemistry 21. In the classroom consideration is given to the application of physio-chemical principles to analytical procedures, the use of organic reagents in quantitative work and to special procedures. The laboratory work includes the complete analysis of a silicate rock containing alkalies, commercial products such as alloy steels, glasses, ores, and gases. Spectrophotometric work is required. The Beckman quartz instrument is used.

31. Organic Analysis.

Four hours. Second semester.

Three lectures and recitations and a minimum of four hours of laboratory work each week. The course deals with the principles of elementary qualitative organic analysis. The laboratory work includes the identification of compounds representative of all of the chief classes of organic materials, and the separation of mixtures with identification of constituents by the preparation of confirming derivatives.

32. Mineralogy.

Three hours. First semester.

A study of minerals introduced by the study of crystallography. The main purpose of the course is to acquaint the student with all of the important minerals and rocks and to interpret their geological history by their location with reference to other minerals. The laboratory work consists of blowpipe work and the usual field and laboratory tests by which one may identify all except very rare minerals. The student is required to identify about one hundred minerals at sight. Individual collections are required.

CATALOGUE

The Chemistry Department has over five thousand labeled specimens of high quality representing every branch of Mineralogy. The collection of crystals represents every important type of crystal form, the garnets, feldspars, and spinels being especially well represented.

33. Metallurgy—Metallography.

Three hours. Second semester.

A study of mining methods, ore dressing, and the various metallurgical processes by which all of the metals are won from their ores. The laboratory work consists of the grinding, polishing and etching of specimens of metals and ferrous and non-ferrous alloys for the study of micro structure. Standard equipment is provided. Visits are made to nearby steel plants and foundries.

40. Physical Chemistry.

Four hours. Throughout the year.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 20 and 21 and prerequisite or parallel courses; Chemistry 22 and Mathematics 33 and 34.

Three lectures and one afternoon of laboratory work each week. Among the topics studied are: gases, liquids, solids, association and dissociation, thermodynamics, chemical and physical equilibrium, the relation between chemical activity and electro-motive force, radio-activity. The solution of fifteen to twenty problems weekly is an important part of the course. The laboratory work includes determinations of molecular weights, viscosity, surface tension, solubility, electro-motive force, conductivity, equilibria, etc.

41. Advanced Organic Chemistry.

Two to four hours. Throughout the year.

Two lectures per week. A survey based on Gilman's Organic Chemistry, Vols. I and II, and current literature. The laboratory work consists of preparations based on Organic Syntheses, Collective Vols. I and II.

42. Introduction to Research.

Four to eight hours. Throughout the year.

Registration with departmental permission.

Independent and original research to be conducted in analytical, physical or organic chemistry. A course designed to prepare students for research in industry or graduate school. Research progress will be compiled as a thesis in order to acquaint the student with the problems of searching the literature, correlating data and applying theoretical consideration to experimental results.

43. Biochemistry.

Two hours. Throughout the year.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 22 and twelve hours of biology.

The chemistry of carbohydrates, lipids, proteins, enzymes, and hormones important in animal organisms and their relationship to life processes.

ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

PROFESSOR ORTH, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR LOCHNER,
MR. FOX, MR. EGLI

The department aims to give students majoring in Economics and Business a thorough training in the essential principles of business and economics and at the same time to offer sufficient electives to provide students preparing for a business career, the teaching profession, law schools or graduate schools, with a general cultural education.

For an outline of the complete course in Economics and Business see page 47.

Minor: Economics 20 (Principles) or Economics 23 (Accounting) and twelve hours of electives to be selected from the following courses: Economic Geography, Elementary and Advanced Statistics, Intermediate and Advanced Accounting, Business Law, Marketing, Money and Banking, Public Finance and Taxation, Corporation Finance, Investments, Transportation, Principles of Insurance, Labor Problems, Personnel Administration and Industrial Management.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

HISTORY

PROFESSORS MILLER AND STONECIPHER, ASSISTANT
PROFESSOR SHAY, MRS. MILLER

The aim of the Department of History is to aid the student in acquiring a knowledge of the past. Knowledge thus acquired will serve as a background against which contemporary affairs can be studied in a more sober, unemotional, and unbiased manner. The study of history also assists the student to arrive at opinions on current problems only after examining and evaluating evidence. This function of the study of history, it is believed, will help to promote good citizenship.

The Department also provides a broad training in the study of history for those who plan to teach in the public schools and for those who intend to do graduate work in the field.

Major: History 10, 24a-24b, 31, 32, and ten additional semester hours. It is suggested that students who plan to study history on the graduate level select History 44 as one elective.

Minor: History 10, 24a-24b, and six additional semester hours.

10. The History of Western Civilization.

Three hours. Throughout the year.

It is the purpose of this course to introduce the student to the principal developments of mankind from early historical times to the present. Emphasis will be placed upon the history of Western civilization in its political, social, and cultural achievements. Some attention is also given to proper forms of note taking, the preparation of reports, and the elements of research.

12. Medieval History.

Two hours. Second semester.

Political, social, and cultural ideas of the Middle Ages will be treated through a study of typical institutions such as the manor, guilds, courts, the church, universities, and monarchical institutions.

21. The Renaissance and Reformation.

Three hours. First semester.

A study of the political, economic, cultural, and religious changes that occurred from the thirteenth to the sixteenth centuries. Special attention is given to the artistic developments of the Renaissance.

22. Seventeenth and Eighteenth Century Europe.

Three hours. Second semester.

This course includes a study of the Wars of Religion, the Age of Louis XIV, the Old Regime in France, the French Revolution, Napoleon, and the Congress of Vienna.

CATALOGUE

23. Political and Social History of the United States and Pennsylvania.

Three hours. Second semester.

A general course in American and Pennsylvania History from Independence to the present time. Emphasis will be placed on the role of Pennsylvania in national, political, and cultural developments. This course is open only to students of the Conservatory of Music.

24a-24b. Political and Social History of the United States and Pennsylvania.

Three hours. Throughout the year.

A survey of American History from the earliest settlements to the Truman Administration. Special attention is given to the history of the colony and state of Pennsylvania. This course is designed to fulfill the state requirements for United States and Pennsylvania history.

29a-29b. Economic History of the United States.

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1950-1951. This course will alternate with History 38.

A study of the economic background of American History, including the growth of American agriculture and industrial interests, from colonial beginnings to their present day development.

30a-30b. History of Greece and Rome.

Two hours. Throughout the year.

A survey of the political and cultural history of Greece and Rome. Emphasis is placed on the cultural contributions of these ancient civilizations to the modern world.

31. Europe from 1815 to 1914.

Three hours. First semester.

Nineteenth century Europe from the Congress of Vienna to the outbreak of World War I.

32. Europe from 1914 to the Present.

Three hours. Second semester.

A study of World War I and World War II. Attention will be given to the problems involved in the post-war period.

33. History of the Far East.

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1950-1951. This course and History 34 will alternate with History 36.

A study designed to acquaint the student with the social, political, economic, and cultural institutions of the Far East prior to 1500 and the subsequent changes growing out of contact with the Western World since that time. Special emphasis will be placed upon the trends since 1500; and particular attention will be devoted to the emergence of Japan from isolation and her development as a world power; the reformation and revolution in China, and her struggle for unity; and the rise of Nationalism in Southeastern Asia.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

34. History of Russia.

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1950-1951. This course and History 33 will alternate with History 36.

A study of the history of Russia from ancient times to the present. Special attention will be given to the late seventeenth, eighteenth, and nineteenth centuries; to the Revolutions of 1905 and 1917; and to the period of communist control.

36. History of England and the British Empire.

Three hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1951-1952. This course will alternate with History 33 and History 34.

A survey of the history of England and the Empire from earliest times to the present.

38. History of Latin America.

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1951-1952. This course will alternate with History 29a-29b.

A survey of the political and cultural development of the Latin American Republics. The period of independence, internal development, and relations with the United States will be emphasized.

42a-42b. American Biography.

One hour. Throughout the year.

A study of the achievements of American men and women who typify important social and political trends. For the year 1950-1951 the selections will be made from the period 1800-1861.

43. History of Pennsylvania.

Three hours. First semester.

A study of the political and social history of Pennsylvania with special emphasis on the different types of settlers and on the contribution of the Commonwealth to the history of the nation.

44. Source Problems in American History.

Two hours. Throughout the year. Open only to History majors, except by special permission.

A course designed to acquaint the student with the use of source material and methods of historical research.

45. The American Revolution and the Period of the Confederation.

Two hours. First semester.

A study of the movement for Independence in the American Colonies and the establishment of the United States of America.

46. The Expansion of the United States.

Two hours. Second semester.

A study of the westward movement of the American People.

Methods of Teaching History. See Education 49.

LATIN

PROFESSOR STONECIPHER

The purpose of the Latin Department is twofold, professional and cultural.

Professionally, its design is to give proper training to prospective teachers of the secondary schools and to lay the foundation for the higher professional training of the university.

Culturally, it is intended to introduce the student to the field of Latin literature, and through it to those elements of Graeco-Roman culture upon which modern civilization is largely based.

Major: Latin 11, 20, 42 and nine additional hours.

Minor: Latin 11, 20, 42 and three additional hours.

Those preparing to teach Latin should take Latin 11, 20, 42, and two additional hours of advanced work.

NOTE: Courses listed below will be given when there is sufficient demand.

10. Subfreshman Latin.

Three hours. Throughout the year.

For those who have had two years of preparation. Reading of high school grade, syntax, and composition.

11. Freshman Latin.

Three hours. Throughout the year.

The reading of Sallust's Catiline, Cicero's De Senectute or De Amicitia, and selections from Pliny's Letters. Study of syntax from text and grammar; Roman life and institutions; graded exercises in prose composition.

20. Readings from Livy, Horace, and Catullus.

Three hours. Throughout the year.

Study of syntax, style, and the history of Latin literature. Latin 11 prerequisite.

30. Seneca.

Three hours. First semester.

Selections from the Epistulae Morales; study of style; Roman philosophic thought. Latin 20 prerequisite.

31. Vergil.

Three hours. Second semester.

Readings from Books VII-XII of the Aeneid and other works of Vergil. Latin 20 prerequisite.

40. Cicero.

Three hours. First semester.

Selections from his Letters; study of Cicero's life as reflected in his correspondence. Latin 20 prerequisite.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

41. Mediaeval Latin.

Three hours. Second semester.

Such readings are selected from this field as to acquaint the student with the development of the Latin language and literature after the classical period. Latin 20 prerequisite.

42. Latin Composition.

Two hours. Throughout the year.

Graded exercises in prose composition, attention also being given to correct pronunciation and oral expression. Required in majors and minors.

Methods of Teaching Latin. See Education 49.

MATHEMATICS

PROFESSORS ERICKSON, ALDRICH AND GRIMM;

COMMANDER TRAUTMAN

Major: Courses 14, 20, 33, 34, 35, 40, Physics 20 and 21 and eight additional hours to be selected from the following: Mathematics 28, 32, 42, 44, 46, 47. Mathematics 18 may be substituted for Mathematics 20. Mathematics 17 may be substituted for Mathematics 14.

Minor: Courses 20, 33, 34 and any additional four semester hours.

A major in Mathematics may lead to either the B.S. or A.B. degree. If the B.S. is desired, the candidate must take the general requirements for the degree (see p. 43), and must select as his minor either Biology, Chemistry, or Physics.

If the A.B. is desired, the candidate must take the general requirements for that degree (see p. 43), and may take his minor in any department other than those named in the preceding paragraph.

Those preparing to teach Mathematics should take Mathematics 20, 33, 34, and four additional hours of advanced work.

Courses 13 and 14 are not open to upper-classmen without special permission.

1. Intermediate College Algebra.

Three hours. First semester.

Designed as a refresher and remedial mathematics course. This course will parallel that of Mathematics 13 and 17 during the first two weeks of the first semester so that proficient students may be advanced into those advanced courses, which will use the same text. Contents: Review of arithmetic; exponents; logarithms; slide rule; literal numbers and the manipulations of such in factoring, products, roots, and binomial theorem; linear and quadratic equations and the practical applications of these to various problems in business, science and other vocations; proportion, variation, and progressions.

13. College Algebra.

Three hours. First semester.

Minimum contents: Factoring, fractions, exponents and radicals, logarithms, linear and simultaneous linear equations, quadratic equations, systems of quadratic equations, variation, binomial theorem, theory of equations through Horner's method.

CATALOGUE

14. Plane Trigonometry.

Three hours. Second semester.

Definitions of trigonometric functions, right and oblique triangles, computation of distances and heights, development of trigonometric formulae, and DeMoivre's theorem.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13 or its equivalent.

16. Plane and Spherical Trigonometry.

Five hours. Second semester.

This course is designed for those planning to enter the armed services. Emphasis will be placed upon use of tables and computation. Applications will be made to firing problems and navigations.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13 or its equivalent.

17. Mathematical Analysis.

Four hours. First semester.

Includes a short review of high school algebra and logarithms, followed by a study of trigonometric functions as applied to solutions of identities, triangles, and DeMoivre's theorem.

Prerequisite: $1\frac{1}{2}$ years of high school algebra and 1 year of plane geometry.

18. Mathematical Analysis.

Four hours. Second semester.

A study of functions involving the straight line, circle, ellipse, parabola, hyperbola, and higher plane curves in rectangular and polar coordinates. Also includes sufficient solid analytical geometry to prepare student for applications of same in multiple integrals of calculus.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 17 or its equivalent.

19. Mathematics of Finance.

Three hours. Second semester.

The course seeks to present the mathematical principles and operations used in financial work. A detailed study of compound interest, compound discount, and annuities is undertaken. Application of these principles is then made to practical problems of amortization, sinking funds, depreciation, valuations of bonds, and building and loan associations.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13.

20. Analytic Geometry.

Three hours. Throughout the year.

The equations of the straight line, circle, ellipse, parabola and hyperbola are studied, numerous examples are solved, and as much of the higher plane curves and of the geometry of space is covered as time will permit.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13 and 14 (or 16), or the equivalent.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

24. Plane Surveying.

Three hours. Second semester.

A study of the instruments, field work, computing areas, plotting and drafting, leveling, etc.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13 and 14 or its equivalent.

28. Advanced Algebra.

Three hours. Second semester.

Covering mathematical induction, logarithms, arithmetic and geometric progressions, permutations, combinations, probability, complex numbers, and additional material depending on whether the course is to be used as a prerequisite for course 32 or 44.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 13 and 14 or the equivalent.

32. Mathematical Statistics.

Three hours. Second semester.

Covering graphic representation, averages, dispersion and skewness, correlation, curve fitting, normal probability curve, index numbers.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 28 or its equivalent.

33. Differential Calculus.

Three hours. First semester.

Differentiation of algebraic and transcendental functions, maxima and minima, rates, some anti-derivatives.

34. Integral Calculus.

Three hours. Second semester.

Formal integration rules and applications, constant of integration, the definite integral with applications to surfaces, volumes, work, and centroid, multiple integration, and some partial derivatives.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 20.

35. Advanced Calculus.

Three hours. First semester.

Review of differential and integral calculus with further investigations of multiple integration, partial derivatives, hyperbolic functions, expansion of series and elementary differential equations.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 34.

40. Differential Equations.

Two hours. First and second semesters.

A course in the elements of differential equations.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 33, 34 and 35.

42. Projective Geometry.

Two hours. Throughout the year.

This course is a synthetic treatment of the elements of projective geometry. A knowledge of elementary analytic geometry is presupposed on the part of the student.

CATALOGUE

44. Vector Analysis.

Three hours. Second semester.

A first course in vector analysis with application to geometry and physics.
Prerequisite: Mathematics 28, 33 and 34.

46. Analytical Mechanics.

Two hours. Throughout the year.

Resolution of force, two and three force pieces, center of gravity, acceleration, moment of inertia, friction.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 33, 34 and Physics 20, 21.

47. Theory of Equations.

Three hours. First semester.

This course is based on Uspenski's text in the Theory of Equations.

MUSIC

PROFESSORS GILLESPIE, RUTLEDGE, CARMEAN, KAHO,
STACHOW, HOLLIDAY

Music is recognized as having a proper place in a liberal education. Three types of participants are necessary to create a concert: composer, performer, listener. The following courses, available to students in the liberal arts, are intended primarily to promote the appreciation of music and furnish the intelligent listener.

Minor: Twenty semester hours, of which at least four hours must be in applied music. The selection of courses must be supervised and approved by the Music Department adviser.

Courses in applied music will not be credited toward any degree except the Bachelor of Science in Music, unless they are taken as part of a full major or minor in music.

For courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Music Education see pages 99-101.

The following courses may be taken as electives for credit toward any degree conferred by the college.

Sight Reading 10, first semester; 11, second semester;
12, first semester.

Three hours per week each. Two hours credit each.

Beginning with 10, singing simple melodies, simple part singing, and unaltered intervals, the course continues through 11 and 20, becoming increasingly difficult in each phase, culminating in oratorio singing.

Dictation 10.

Three hours per week. Two hours credit. First semester.

Dictation of melodies, intervals, and harmonic.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Dictation 11.

Three hours per week. Two hours credit. Second semester.

Continued dictation of intervals and melodies, with addition of modulations and harmonic dictation.

Dictation 20.

Three hours per week. Two hours credit. First semester.

Addition of chromatic dictation.

Harmony 10.

Three hours. First semester.

Fundamentals of music notation, both tonal and rhythmic. Beginning written four part harmony, including simple triads.

Harmony 11.

Three hours. Second semester.

Inversions of simple triads, seventh chord and its inversions. Original work, and study of form and analysis.

Harmony 20.

Two hours. First semester.

Continued inversions of the seventh chord, chromatic harmony and modulations. Original work.

Harmony 30.

Two hours. Second semester.

Harmonization of melodies and transposition at the piano.

Harmony 31.

Two hours. Second semester.

Original compositions in various vocal and instrumental forms.

Harmony 40.

Two hours. First or second semester.

Elementary work in strict counterpoint (five species in Two Part and Three Part Counterpoint).

History and Appreciation of Music 30.

Three hours. First semester.

History of music from the beginning of time to the Romantic Period.

History and Appreciation of Music 31.

Three hours. Second semester.

A study of music from the Romantic Period to the present day.

Pageantry 30.

Two hours. First semester.

Techniques involved are the writing of the theme, planning, arranging dances, and completing a pageant.

CATALOGUE

College Chorus.

Meeting one hour per week throughout the year, but carrying 2/3 hr. credit.

N.B. No student may receive credit for chorus work more than one year.

ORIENTATION

11. Freshman Orientation.

One hour. First semester.

Lectures and personal conferences designed to help students meet the problems, social as well as academic, that confront them on entering college.

PHILOSOPHY

PROFESSOR EHRHART

Philosophy concerns itself with spiritual values and the relation of these values to the problems of life. The paramount function of courses in philosophy is to correlate spiritual values with scientific and all other curricular values in so far as they touch the problems of life.

Major: Philosophy 10, 11, 20a-20b, 30, 31 and seven additional semester hours.

Minor: Philosophy 10, 11, 20a-20b, 30 and four additional semester hours.

10. Introduction to Philosophy.

Three hours. First semester.

This course is intended to introduce beginners to the basic problems and theories of philosophy and quicken them to some appreciation of the role played by philosophy in the whole movement of civilization, while at the same time giving them at least an inkling of the work of the greatest thinkers and arousing in them a desire to go to the sources.

11. Inductive and Deductive Logic.

Three hours. Second semester.

This course is intended to furnish the student with a knowledge of the laws of correct thinking, the purpose and place of the syllogism in the processes of thinking, and the detection of fallacies in thinking.

20a. Ancient and Medieval Philosophy.

Three hours. First semester.

In this course the aim will be (1) to trace the development of philosophy, pointing out what of permanent value each system as it arose contributed toward a final solution of the nature of being, and (2) to show the interaction between philosophic thought and the practical life of the period during which it flourished.

20b. Modern Philosophy.

Three hours. Second semester. A continuation of 20a.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

25. Philosophy in America.

Two hours. First semester. Open to all students.

A critical history of ideas in the United States from the Puritans till today. In this country, as often elsewhere, philosophy has been integral to the general life of the nation. A study of both general and religious views.

30. Ethics.

Two hours. Open to juniors and seniors.

The aim of this course is to acquaint the student with the academic ethical problems, and to effect an awakening and a strengthening of the moral sense.

31. Philosophy of Religion.

Three hours. Second semester.

The purpose of this course is to properly correlate scientific and philosophic truths with religion, to inquire into the validity of religious knowledge, and to seek a philosophical basis for an adequate religious viewpoint.

32. Contemporary Philosophy.

Two hours. First semester. Offered 1951-1952.

The living philosophers of the various nations are studied. The new problems which have arisen for them, and the old problems in which they continued to be interested, will be considered, as well as their proffered solutions.

Prerequisite: Philosophy 20a, 20b.

33. Plato.

Two hours. Second semester. Offered 1951-1952.

A study of the main conceptions of Platonic philosophy as they are found in the Platonic dialogues. Reading and discussion of the more important dialogues, and a consideration of their influence on Christian philosophy.

40. Metaphysics.

Two hours. First semester. Offered 1950-1951.

An inquiry into the nature of first principles and a critical examination of such questions as the nature and reality of universals, external and internal relations, the one and the many, appearance and reality, the relation of body and mind, freedom and necessity, causation.

Prerequisite: Philosophy 10.

41. Aesthetics.

Two hours. Second semester. Offered 1950-1951.

A survey of the philosophy of the beautiful, the correlation of the same with the development of the fine arts, and a consideration of fundamental principles of criticism.

Political Theory. See Political Science 40.

Psychology of Religion. See Psychology 34.

PHYSICS

PROFESSORS GRIMM AND ALDRICH

The Physics Department aims not only to provide its majors an introduction to the techniques and applications of physical science, but aims also to give students of Liberal Arts an insight into the behavior of non-living matter and to indicate the possible extent, as well as the limitations, of our knowledge of the physical universe.

Major: Physics 20, 21, 32, 33, 43, 45, Mathematics 46 and any eight additional hours.

Minor: Physics 20, 21 and any ten additional semester hours.

20. General College Physics.

Three hours. Throughout the year.

Three hours lectures and recitations per week. This course will be a thorough investigation of the fundamental principles of physical science, and is especially intended as a preparation for advanced courses in Physics, and for those interested in the practical applications of physical laws and principles. When accompanied by Physics 21, it meets the minimum requirements of those who are candidates for the bachelor's degree in science and for admission to the Medical Schools.

21. General Physics Laboratory.

Two hours. Throughout the year.

Laboratory work associated with the subject matter of Physics 20. This course should accompany Physics 20.

30. Mechanics.

Three hours. First semester.

This course will be a thorough investigation of the mechanics of solids, liquids, gases, and sound. Prerequisite: Physics 20, 21.

31. Mechanics Laboratory.

Two hours. First semester.

Experimental work in precise measurements. Conventional experiments with momentum, rotation, and physical moduli of materials.

32. Magnetism and Electricity.

Three hours. First semester. Offered 1950-1951.

This course will be a thorough consideration of the laws of the electric and magnetic fields and the power applications of electricity as direct and low frequency alternating currents.

33. Electrical Measurements.

Two hours. Throughout the year. Offered 1950-1951.

Measurements of potential, current, resistance, capacity, and inductance in the field of direct currents and of alternating currents at low and high frequencies. This course should accompany Physics 32 and 46, and may be divided into two parts.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

43. Light: Optics and Spectroscopy.

Three hours. First semester.

This course will be concerned with the nature of light and its transmission through various media including reflection, refraction, and dispersion. Prerequisite: Physics 20, 21.

44. Optics Laboratory.

Two hours. Throughout the year.

Experimental work with reflection, refraction, and dispersion of light. This course should accompany Physics 43 and Physics 45.

45. Modern Physics.

Three hours. Second semester.

An investigation of the application of physical principles to molecular, atomic, and electronic phenomena. Recent developments in nuclear physics.

46. High Frequency Alternating Currents—Electronics and Radio

Three hours. Second semester. Offered 1950-1951.

The generation of high frequency alternating currents and their application to radio transmission and its associated equipment.

47. Heat and Thermodynamics.

Three hours. Second semester.

The theory of heat, kinetic theory of gases, and the laws of thermodynamics.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

See Sociology and Political Science.

PSYCHOLOGY

PROFESSORS COOPER, FAGAN, EHRHART AND MRS. ROULETTE

The courses offered by the department are designed (1) to give the student insight into his own mental processes and practical guidance in the art of living, not only in the school community but also in the more complex realm of human relationships outside; (2) to develop an increasing understanding of the factors determining human behavior and the ability to deal wisely in human relations; (3) to afford a knowledge of the basic facts and principles of psychology and an awareness of their applicability to the solution of contemporary problems; and (4) to provide an acquaintance with essential methods and techniques in psychology as a preparation for graduate study in that field.

Major: Psychology 20, 30, 32, 35, 40, 41 and six additional hours.

Minor: Psychology 20, 30, 35 and nine additional hours.

CATALOGUE

20. General Psychology.

Three hours. First semester. Restricted to sophomores and upper classmen except by consent of the departmental adviser.

A beginning course in general psychology, designed to acquaint the student with the fundamental psychological principles and their application in daily life.

Lectures and discussions.

21. Psychology of Childhood.

Three hours. Second semester.

A study of the psychological development of the child from the beginning of life to adolescence. Throughout the course emphasis is placed upon practical problems of child care and training. Topics considered include the development of proper physical and health habits, children's questions, religious and sex instruction, emotional and personality problems, problems of family life and relationships, behavior problems and discipline, and problems of school life and relationships.

Lectures, assigned readings, and panel discussions.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

22. Mental Hygiene.

Three hours. Second semester.

A study of wholesome and effective personality adjustments, including the causes and treatment of the more common social and emotional maladjustments.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

23. Educational Psychology.

Three hours. Second semester.

A psychological study of the nature of the learner and the nature of the learning process. The course includes such topics as individual differences, motivation, emotion, and transfer of training.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

30. Applied Psychology.

Three hours. First semester.

A survey of the applications of psychology to the various fields of human relations. Among the areas covered are vocational guidance, human adjustment, public opinion and propaganda, industry, business, work and efficiency, and clinical practice.

Lectures, discussions, special reports, and field trips.

Prerequisites: Psychology 20 and one other course in Psychology.

31. Psychology of Adolescence.

Three hours. First semester.

A study of the individual's development from childhood to maturity. Characteristic features of physical, intellectual, social, emotional, and moral and religious growth are considered in detail, with practical application to problems of educational, vocational, and heterosexual adjustment.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Lectures, discussions, assigned readings, and case studies.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

32. Abnormal Psychology.

Three hours. Second semester.

An introduction to the study of abnormal behavior, including such topics as hysteria, multiple personality, hypnosis, analysis of nervous and mental maladjustments, and a study of psychological processes as they occur in the more marked forms of derangement.

Prerequisites: Psychology 20 and one other course in Psychology.

33. Social Psychology.

Three hours. First semester.

A study of psychological facts and principles and their application to problems arising from the interaction of individuals and groups in modern society. The biological and social foundations of human behavior, factors influencing social adjustment and interaction, the main types of social institutions, and major areas of social conflict are considered with a view to the formulation of concrete solutions to selected problems of major concern.

Lectures, discussions, and assigned readings with emphasis upon their social significance.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

34. Psychology of Religion.

Three hours. First semester.

The growth of religion in the life of the individual is subject to certain psychological laws. This course seeks to acquaint the student with such laws for use in facilitating religious growth.

Lectures and discussions.

Prerequisite: Psychology 20.

35. Experimental Psychology.

Three hours. Second semester. Required of all students with a Major or a Minor in Psychology. Open to others only by consent of the departmental adviser.

This course introduces the student to the most important methods and techniques of research in psychology and to a number of the notable experiments in the field. Throughout the course the requirements of scientific method and the principle of "learning by doing" are emphasized.

One hour of lecture or lecture-demonstration and four hours of laboratory work per week.

Prerequisites: Psychology 20 and two additional courses in the department, preferably including Psychology 30.

CATALOGUE

40. Systematic Psychology.

Three hours. First semester. Required of all students majoring in the department. Open also to students with a Minor in Psychology.

A survey of the major contemporary schools of thought in psychology. The schools studied include functionalism, structuralism, associationism, behaviorism, dynamic psychology, Gestalt psychology, psychoanalysis and related schools, purposivism, and organismic and personalistic psychology.

Lectures, discussions, assigned readings, and special reports.

Prerequisites: Psychology 20 and two other courses in Psychology.

41. Methods of Clinical Psychology.

Three hours. Second semester. Required of all students majoring in the department. Open to others only by consent of the departmental adviser.

This course is designed to meet the needs of the student who is planning to specialize in psychology by acquainting him with the major types of educational and behavior problems, and with the most important techniques of individual diagnosis and treatment currently employed. Widely used individual tests and scales, projective techniques, and psychotherapeutic methods are studied in detail.

Lectures, demonstrations, and practical work.

Prerequisites: Psychology 20, 30, 35, and two additional courses in the department.

42. Mental Tests and Measurements.

Three hours. Second semester. Open only to students with a Major or a Minor in Psychology.

This course will acquaint students with the general theory underlying intelligence testing, and will afford practice in the giving of individual intelligence tests of both the verbal and the performance type. Emphasis will be placed, however, upon the administration of the Revised Stanford-Binet Tests of Intelligence and the Wechsler-Bellevue Intelligence Scale. Students will be held responsible for achieving some proficiency in the use of these tests.

One hour of lecture or lecture-demonstration and four hours of laboratory work per week.

Prerequisite or Corequisite: Psychology 41.

RELIGION

PROFESSORS RICHIE AND STONECIPHER AND MR. GOCKLEY

In times of great national crisis it is the duty and task of religion to develop and promote the moral and spiritual life of the college and nation. This department aims to increase the appreciation of the religious influence of ancient leaders and to evaluate the power and worth of Biblical customs, thoughts, and patterns in modern life. The general student body as well as ministerial students are encouraged to pursue advanced studies and apply the principles of Christianity to the solution of individual, national, and world problems.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Major: Religion 10, 32, Philosophy 31, Psychology 34 and twelve additional semester hours.

Minor: Religion 10, 20, 30, 32 and eight additional semester hours.

10a-10b. Introduction to English Bible.

Two hours. Throughout the year. This course or Religion 11 required of all college freshmen.

An appreciative and historical survey of the literature of the Old and New Testaments.

11. Introduction to Religion.

Two hours. Throughout the year. This course or Rel. 10a-10b is required of all college freshmen.

The purpose of this course is to acquaint the student with the place and significance of religion in human life. Chief topics of study are: the major religious beliefs, the Judaeo-Christian tradition as found in the Old and New Testaments, the Church, and the meaning of religion in relation to science and current social problems.

20. The Prophets.

Two hours. First semester.

A study of the lives of the major and minor prophets, and an analysis of their contributions to the ethical and religious thought of the Old Testament.

21. The History and Religion of the Hebrews.

Two hours. First semester.

The purpose of this course is to furnish the student with a true perspective of the religious growth of the Hebrews during the period of the Old Testament.

30. Life and Epistles of Paul.

Two hours. Second semester.

The life and epistles of Paul, and the practices, problems, and beliefs of the early church.

31. The Christian Church.

Two hours. First semester.

A study of the growth of Christianity beyond the primitive church, with special emphasis on the origin and growth of denominations.

32. The Teachings of Jesus.

Two hours. First and second semester. Offered yearly. Required of all college seniors.

This course attempts an intensive study of the religious concepts of Jesus as set forth in the Gospels.

40. Principles of Religious Education.

Two hours. First semester. Offered 1950-1951.

A fundamental course investigating some of the theories, principles, and problems of Religious Education.

CATALOGUE

41. The Church School.

Two hours. Second semester. Offered 1950-1951.

A study of the principles, problems, and methods in the organization and administration of the Sunday School, Church Vacation School, and Week Day School of Religion.

42. The History of Religion.

Summer School, Extension, and Evening Courses

Through summer sessions, extension classes, and evening classes, Lebanon Valley College has for many years enabled teachers, state employees, and others in active employment to attend college courses and secure academic degrees. By a careful selection of courses made in consultation with the heads of departments in the College, a student can meet the course and residence requirements for a baccalaureate degree.

Students in regular attendance may, by taking summer school courses, meet the requirements for the bachelor's degree in three years.

Courses in the following subjects will be offered in the Summer School of 1950, and in extension and evening classes in 1950-1951: Biology, Economics and Business, Chemistry, Education, English, French, German, History, Mathematics, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, and Sociology.

Extension classes are offered in the Central School Building, Forster Street, Harrisburg, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.

Extension and evening classes will begin during the week of September 25, 1950.

For details pertaining to Summer School, write to Professor D. Clark Carmean.

For details pertaining to Extension and Evening Courses, write to Dr. G. A. Richie.

OUTLINE OF COURSES

I. Theory of Music

Sight Singing Courses

Sight Singing 10.

Three hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

Sight Singing 10 covers the work equivalent to grades 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the public school.

Sight Singing 11.

Three hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

Sight Singing 11 covers the work equivalent to grades 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the public school.

Sight Singing 20.

Three hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

A continuation with exercises and songs of increasing difficulty both tonal and rhythmic. Emphasis on reading from any clef. Study and application of additional tempo, dynamic and interpretative markings.

Speed and accuracy are demanded. New material is constantly used, resulting in an extensive survey of song material.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

Dictation (Ear Training) Courses

Ear Training 10.

Three hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

A study of tone and rhythm integrated with Sight Singing 10 and Harmony 10, including the writing of intervals, melodies, and chord progressions as dictated from the piano.

Ear Training 11.

Three hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

A continuation of the study of tone, rhythm, and intervals. A considerable portion of the time is devoted to the development of harmonic dictation.

Ear Training 20.

Three hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

A study of the more difficult tonal problems and complicated rhythms. Chromatic dictation correlated with chromatic harmony.

Designed to develop ability to recognize and write chord progressions, including modulation, and altered chords.

Harmony Courses

Harmony 10.

Three hours per week, three semester hours credit. First semester.

A study of the rudiments of music, including notation, scales, intervals, and triads; the connection of triads by harmonizing melodies and basses with fundamental triads; playing of simple cadences at the piano; analysis of phrases and periods.

Harmony 11.

Three hours per week, three semester hours credit. Second semester.

Deals with inversions of triads, seventh and ninth chords, harmonizations of melodies and figured basses; analysis and composition of the smaller forms; modulation.

Harmony 20 (Chromatic Harmony).

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

The use of dominant and diminished sevenths as embellishments of and substitutes for diatonic harmony; harmonization of melodies and figured basses; analysis of two and three part song forms; composition in two part song form. Playing of more advanced cadences and modulations at the piano.

Harmony 21 (Chromatic Harmony).

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

Continuation of the study of chromatic harmony; use of borrowed tones, augmented chords, and modulation; analysis of sonata form and fugue; original composition in forms analyzed.

CATALOGUE

Harmony 30 (Keyboard).

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

Harmonization at the piano of melodies, both with four part harmony and accompaniment; transposition; modulation; improvisation.

Harmony 31 (Composition and Orchestration).

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

Original composition is continued in various vocal and instrumental forms. This course offers opportunity and guidance in arranging music for various combinations of instruments and voice, including band, orchestra, and chorus. The best productions of the class will be given public performance.

Harmony 40 (Counterpoint).

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First or second semester.

Elementary work in strict Counterpoint (five species in Two Part and Three Part Counterpoint).

Harmony 41 (Form and Analysis).

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First or second semester.

This course offers an intensive study of the structure of music including hymns and simple folk songs, two and three part song forms, variations, contrapuntal forms, rondo and sonata forms. Compositions in these forms are studied and analyzed for harmonic content and structure.

Arranging and Scoring for the Modern Orchestra 43.

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First or second semester.

Study of modern harmony, modulation, style analysis, special instrumental effects as applied to modern arranging. Laboratory analysis and demonstration of sectional and ensemble voicings.

Instruction offered privately and in classes.

Schillinger System of Music Composition 42.

Private teaching.

A scientific system of music composition created by the late Joseph Schillinger, teacher of such accomplished professionals as George Gershwin, Ted Royal Dewar.

The major aims of the system are to (1) generalize underlying principles regarding the behavior of tonal phenomena, (2) classify all the available resources of our tonal system, (3) teach a comprehensive application of scientific method to all components of the tonal art, to problems of melody, rhythm, harmony, counterpoint, orchestration and to composition itself.

The system is best studied in the light of a traditional background and admission to course or private instruction will be by special permission only.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

II. Materials and Methods

Methods 20: Child Voice and Rote Songs with Materials and Methods for Grades 1, 2, 3.

Four hours per week, three semester hours credit. Second semester.

A comprehensive study of the use of the child's singing voice in the primary grades, including the treatment of monotonies, acquaintance with the best collections of rote songs, and practice in choosing, memorizing, singing, and presenting a large number of these songs; methods of presenting rhythm through singing games and simple interpretative movements; beginnings of directed music appreciation; foundation studies for later technical developments. Comparative study of recognized Public School Music Series.

Methods 30: All Materials and Methods for Grades 4, 5, 6.

Four hours per week, three semester hours credit. First semester.

A study of the child's singing voice in the intermediate grades; special attention to the formal or technical work of these grades, with an evaluation of important texts and recent approaches. Preparation of lesson plans, making of outlines, and observation is required. Music appreciation is continued.

Methods 31: Materials and Methods, Junior and Senior High School.

Four hours per week, three semester hours credit. Second semester.

The junior and senior high school problems are treated separately through an analysis of the specific problems, year by year or in special groups. Attention is given to materials and methods relative to the organization and directing of choruses, glee clubs, orchestra, band, elementary theory, music appreciation, and class instruction in band and orchestral instruments; study in the testing and care of the adolescent voice.

Methods 40: Advanced Problems.

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

A study of the general and specific problems which confront the director of school orchestras, bands, and instrumental classes. Problems of general interest will include (1) organization and management, (2) stimulating and maintaining interest, (3) selection of beginners, (4) scheduling rehearsals and class lessons, (5) financing and purchasing instruments, uniforms, and other equipment, (6) marching bands—formations and drills, (7) evaluating music materials, (8) festivals, contests, and public performances.

III. Student Teaching

Student Teaching 40, 41.

Eight hours throughout the year, twelve semester hours credit.

The Senior Class of the Music Education course teaches in the Derry Township Consolidated Schools at Hershey, Pa. Teaching includes vocal and instrumental work from kindergarten to high school.

CATALOGUE

This work is done under the guidance of the following faculty:

Mary E. Gillespie, M.A. Columbia University, Director of the Conservatory of Music, Lebanon Valley College.

Jane Holliday, B.Mus., B.A. in Mus.Ed., University of Wyoming, Professor of Music Education and Cello, Lebanon Valley College Conservatory of Music.

One hour per week. Second semester.

Instrumental Seminar.

One or two hours per week. First or second semester.

Application of specific techniques to problems of class instruction.

Woodwind	50.	Prerequisite: Advanced Woodwind	30.
Brass	50.	Prerequisite: Advanced Brass	40.
String	50.	Prerequisite: Advanced String	30.
Percussion	50.	Prerequisite: Advanced Percussion	40.

V. Musical Organizations

College Band.

Two hours per week throughout the year.

Lebanon Valley College maintains a uniformed band, the membership of which is made up of college and conservatory students. The band contributes to college life by playing at football games, by appearing on several programs during the year, and by providing the musical accompaniment for the annual May Day Fête. During the spring several concerts are given in various cities of this section of the state. Membership in the band is determined by an applicant's ability on his instrument and by the needs of the band with respect to maintaining a well-balanced instrumentation.

Girls' Band.

Two hours per week throughout the year.

This organization is open to girls of the Conservatory and College alike. Membership in this band is determined by the applicant's ability on her instrument, and by the needs of the band with respect to maintaining a well-balanced instrumentation. The group will participate in a spring concert.

Symphony Orchestra.

Two hours per week throughout the year.

The Lebanon Valley College Symphony Orchestra is a musical organization of symphonic proportions. Open alike to advanced players from the college and the conservatory, the orchestra adheres to a high standard of performance. Throughout the school year a professional interpretation of a wide range of standard orchestral literature is insisted upon.

College Orchestra.

One hour per week throughout the year.

The College Orchestra is open to all members of the Conservatory and of the College who are sufficiently qualified to belong to this organization.

CATALOGUE

Junior Orchestra.

One hour per week throughout the year.

Students of the elementary and advanced instrumental classes are given an opportunity to play their instruments in the Junior Band and the Junior Orchestra, thus gaining a type of valuable ensemble experience not possible to attain in the instrumental classes.

Glee Club.

Two hours per week throughout the year.

The Glee Club is a mixed chorus of selected voices. The personnel of the organization, while open to all L. V. C. students, is limited to forty members. During the spring the Club appears in concerts in several communities throughout this section of the state. Choral literature of the highest type is studied intensively.

College Chorus.

One hour per week throughout the year.

The mixed chorus is open to all on the campus who are interested in this type of musical performance and who have had some experience in singing.

Instrumental Ensembles.

In addition to the larger musical organizations there is additional opportunity for advanced players to try out for such ensembles as:

- (1) String Trio
- (2) String Quartet
- (3) Violin Choir
- (4) Brass Ensemble
- (5) Woodwind Ensemble

VI. The History of Music and Appreciation

History of Music and Appreciation 30.

Three hours per week, three semester hours credit. First semester.

The first developments of music are treated briefly, and special emphasis is placed on the work of the contrapuntal schools and the development of the harmonic idea in composition including the rise of opera, oratorio, and instrumental music in the sonata form. The first semester covers the development of music through the period of Beethoven. Much music of each period, style, and composer is studied.

History of Music and Appreciation 31.

Three hours per week, three semester hours credit. Second semester.

This is a continuation of History of Music 30 and includes the musical styles, forms, and composers of the Romantic, Impressionistic, and Contemporary periods.

LEBANON VALLEY COLLEGE

A Study of Music Literature 32.

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

A study of instrumental music literature for children and adults. Included in the course will be grading the material and a study of presenting it to the different age levels.

VII. Miscellaneous Courses

Elementary Conducting 20.

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. Second semester.

Principles of conducting and a study of the technique of the baton are presented in this course. Each student will conduct vocal and instrumental ensembles made up of the class personnel.

Intermediate Conducting 30.

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

Emphasis is given to a detailed and comprehensive study of the factors involved in the interpretation of choral and instrumental music.

Advanced Conducting 40.

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

In addition to conducting from full score, each student will be expected to conduct in rehearsal the various concert organizations of Lebanon Valley College.

Eurythmics 20.

Two hours per week, one semester hour credit. First semester.

The course offers a three-fold training: mental control through coördination; physical poise through movements made in response to rhythm; and a musical sense through the analysis of the rhythmic element in music.

Eurythmics 21.

Two hours per week, one semester hour credit. Second semester.

General survey of elementary and intermediate floor work, and interpretation together with a discussion of the principles underlying the presentation of this to children. Applied improvisation will be an integral part of the course.

Care and Repair 20.

One hour per week. Both semesters.

An analytical laboratory technique applied to methods of construction of the band and orchestra instruments. With this information as a background, preventive measures are established to avoid undue wear and deterioration of the instruments, and through actual experience the student acquires proficiency in the operations necessary in replacements and repair.

Physical Science 40.

Three hours. First semester. Open to music students only.

Cultivation of the scientific approach to sound and tone, with emphasis on their application to music and musical instruments.

CATALOGUE

Pageantry 30.

Two hours per week, two semester hours credit. First semester.

Techniques involved in the organization, administration, and participation of many people in both indoor and outdoor ceremonies. Directed toward a study of structure and staging, historical data, folk activities, folk-lore, and community life and spirit. Includes the writing of the theme, planning, arranging dances, and completing a pageant.

VIII. Individual Instruction

Voice, Piano, Organ, Chorus, Orchestral and Band Instruments.

The work in the foregoing fields will be organized from the standpoint of the development of musicianship in the individual student. The work continues through eight semesters and assures a well-rounded and many-sided acquaintance with various musical techniques.

Private instruction is provided in Applied Music (Piano, Voice, Organ, Violin, and all instruments of orchestra and band).

Piano: Mrs. Bender, Mr. Freeland, Miss Barthel, Dr. Kaho, Mr. Fair-lamb.

Voice: Mr. Crawford, Mr. Rovers, Mr. Landor.

Organ: Mr. Campbell.

Violin: Mr. Malsh.

Brass: Mr. Rutledge.

Viola, 'Cello, and String Bass: Miss Holliday.

Woodwind: Mr. Stachow.

IX. Junior Department

The Conservatory of Music sponsors a Junior Department especially adapted to children of elementary or high school age.

This Junior Department offers either private or class instruction in piano and all instruments of the band and orchestra. A desirable number for class instruction is from four to six members.

THE STUDENT RECITALS

The student evening recitals are of inestimable value to all students in acquainting them with a wide range of the best musical literature, in developing musical taste and discrimination, in affording young musicians experience in appearing before an audience, and in gaining self-reliance as well as nerve control and stage demeanor.

Students in all grades appear on the programs of these recitals.

FEES

A Matriculation Fee of five dollars must be paid by all full-time students who are entering the College or Conservatory for the first time. This fee should accompany the application for admission. If a student's application is not accepted, the fee will be returned.

All students not enrolled in regular College or Conservatory Courses will be required to pay a matriculation fee of one dollar, once in each school year.

The rates for the Music Education Teachers' and Supervisors' Course are $430 per year, which covers not only tuition but also a fee for student activities.

The Music Education Teachers' and Supervisors' Course includes two private lessons per week, the use of a piano two hours daily for practice, and theoretical and college courses not exceeding a total of seventeen semester hours each semester.

Extra hours in theoretical and college courses will be charged at the rate of $10.00 per semester hour.

Private Lessons

The rate per semester, one lesson per week, is $30.00.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Regular Conservatory students are not enrolled for a shorter period of time than a full semester, or the unexpired portion of a semester; and no reduction is made for delay in registering when the time lost is less than one-fourth of the semester.

No reduction is made for absence from recitations except in case of protracted illness extending beyond a period of two weeks, in which case the loss is shared equally by the college and student.

Conservatory students are under the regular college discipline.
